

April 5, 1941

55 Somerset Street,
Newark, New Jersey.

Mr. "Bus" Clarkson,
526 Sixth Street,
Jeannette, Pa.

Dear Clarkson:

It is too bad you did not put forth a bigger effort to see me when you were in Newark. Misunderstandings are not pleasant. I certainly did expect you to look for me when you returned from Puerto Rico. The logical places would have been my home, the office or the hotel. However, we did not get to talk, so I guess there is nothing to do but correspond.

First of all I did not send contracts to any of the men in Puerto Rico. I wrote Pearson and asked him if he saw any of you to tell you I would discuss contracts with you when you returned. This is what I did in the case of Day and Irvin, and I had expected to do with you. Irvin and Day have gone to camp with the team.

I am enclosing your contract. Expect it back by return mail, with word when you plan to arrive in camp. The team is encamped at Daytona Beach, Florida, c/o Dr. Slack, 560 South End St.

I hope you have recovered from your sickness.

Very truly yours,